Chapel Benches

The Chapel Bench seating options from Rosehill offer a combination of minimalism, lightness, elegance, comfort and sturdiness. They're ideal for modern chapel spaces.

The Aero HPL Bench (B215) is composed of a textured compact shell with stainless steel or painted legs. The spacing for each seat is approximately 600mm and, like all freestanding models, it can be fixed to the floor if required.

The Bildu Modular Beam (B216) fuses formal beauty with the functionality, available in a single, two, three and four seat lengths, in natural, stained or upholstered wood.

The Back Modular Seating System (A529) offers different combinations by using wooden finishes and paddings in linear compositions.

- Bench systems available in a different selection of widths
- The Aero benches have a beautiful HPL textured laminate finish
- Upholstered pads can be added for additional comfort and to bring colour into the space
- Optional extras include internal arms on the benches and floor fixings
